BIG BARBECUE DRAWS CROWD

Throng Estimated at Twelve Thousand and Assembled at Winchester Last Saturday.

A crowd estimated at between ten and twelve thousand people gathered at Winchester Saturday to attend the big Democratic Love-Fest and the meeting was a most enthusiastic one.

The administration of President Wilson was given the highest praise by Vice President Marshall, Congressmen Hardy, of Texas, and Heflin, of Alabama. We are especially proud of the delegation from old Montgomery which numbered more than six hundred.

Representative Hardy, of Texas, who spoke before noon, is a ranking member of the House Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries. His speech was a forceful and logical review of the achievements of the Democratic party since the inauguration of President Wilson.

Vice President Marshall, the first speaker of the afternoon, was greeted by an enthusiastic demonstration. He delivered an impressive speech—a much better speech than was expected of him by those who had not heard him since his campaign for Governor of Indiana. His voice was clear and distinct and he was heard by a large proportion of the crowd. He held the attention of the audience and his telling points frequently elicited spontaneous applause. More than once he aroused the Democratic hosts to enthusiastic cheers. He was particularly effective in describing the speeches of Hughes as echoes of stand-pat Republican speeches in the Senate.

Representative Heflin, of Alabama, proved the great entertainer of the day. His eloquent and forceful contrast of Democratic and Republican policies was interspersed with stories, told only as Heflin can tell them, that kept the big crowd in a roar. If Heflin had not gotten into politics and into Congress he might have been a star on the minstrel stage. To this capacity as an entertainer he adds real oratorical power and his speech was a forceful presentation of the Democratic position in the campaign.

We will have to "take off our hats" to Judge John E. Garner, who managed the barbecue, and the other good people of Winchester and Clark county for the faultless style in which the big barbecue was handled and the cordial welcome extended to all the visitors, who came from every part of the State.

Mr. Jack Winn will leave within a few days for Princeton University. Miss Kathryn Howell, daughter of Mr. David Howell, will go to Tallahassee, Florida, where she will enter the State College for Women. J. Breckinridge Horton and Misses Mary and Emma Coons have entered Transylvania University at Lexington. Does It Pay?

Does it pay to advertise in dull seasons? No use answering a question with a theory when facts are at hand—facts like these:

July and August used to be the dull months of all the year in the furniture business—now they are the busiest because advertising turned dullness into activity.

January was formerly a time when men's clothing stores did no business. Now, by advertising, they make record sales.

Right down the list instances can be cited where merchants and manufacturers have turned supposedly dull periods into busy ones.

And they did it by advertising—by newspaper advertising in most instances.

Sitting around cussing the weather won't ring the cash register, but advertising will. Newspaper advertising coupled with good merchandising will drive any dull month from the calendar. Perhaps not at once, but little by little.

Now is the time to increase business for the immediate present and get a flying start for the Fall. Now is the time to make your advertising plans and to begin an aggressive bid for business.

IS CALLED TO HEAVEN

Master Bruce Blevins, Aged Fifteen Years, Dies of Kidney Trouble This Morning.

Bruce Blevins, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. William Blevins, died at his home on Antwerp avenue this morning at two o'clock after an illness of many months' duration of kidney trouble, and while his death was not unexpected still it comes as a shock to the many friends of the family that one so young should be called.

It is sad to give up one whose influence among men would doubtless have been for good; who by precept and example was so well calculated to spread abroad the blessed influence of godly living. Yet He who doeth all things well, makes no mistakes. The human link snapped asunder on earth is forged anew in heaven. The yearning parents mourn not as one without hope. It is true that when beautiful youth is gone not much of life remains; hence the dear one's eyes are closed to all earthly trials. In his springtime of enthusiasm and tenderness, ere the sunshine of hope and joy was extinguished, he passed to the glorious beyond.

The silver cord is loosed, the golden bowl is broken, the dust has returned to the earth as it was; the spirit has returned to the God who gave it. The devoted boy who remembered his Creator in the days of his youth, ere the evil days came, or the years drew nigh when he should say I have no pleasure in them, has finished his course and reached the heavenly goal while yet an infant in the race of life.

Besides his parents deceased is survived by several brothers and sisters. Funeral services will be conducted at the residence tomorrow (Wednesday) afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by Rev. B. W. Trimble and the burial will take place in Maplehill cemetery.

Strayed—Black hog, weight 125 pounds, from my place in edge of city limits, Aug. 29. Reward for any information leading to its recovery. (11-3t) John C. Trimble.

While returning from the barbecue at Winchester Saturday afternoon an automobile driven by Mr. Will Seabee was struck by another machine and knocked off the road, the other machine never stopping to see if any damage had been done, according to the statements made by those in Mr. Seabee's car. The Seabee machine struck a telephone pole, cutting it half in two, and a serious accident was miraculously averted. The car looked to be almost a complete wreck and was said to be damaged beyond local repair. Mr. Seabee was accompanied by Mr. Rufus Hadden, who had a leg slightly injured, Mr. Thos. Doctor W. R. Thompson, while answering a call the first of the week, had a rather narrow escape. The steering wheel of his machine broke and the machine turned into a fence. MOULDING THEM INTO MEN

Have you ever watched wood turners take up a rough piece of wood, run it through first one lathe and then another, and have it come out a polished and perfect piece of furniture or other article of daily use?

That is exactly what the officers of the Army are doing with the young men of the National Guard now on the Mexican border.

Doctors and thinking men generally admit that military training is the greatest possible aid to intellectual, physical and moral development. The daily exercise gradually works the raw and awkward youth into a physically perfect and self-reliant man; disciplines implants in his mind the necessity and the desirability of respect for his superiors and for his fellow men; the intelligence and the high standard of morality maintained by his preceptors elevates him to a higher and more honorable plane of manhood; as the months go by he becomes more and more a man among men.

Young men who went to the border with their regiments will come home with higher purposes in life, with a greater determination to meet and overcome the numerous obstacles in the pathway to success, and radiating to others their own newly acquired polish, self-reliance, forcefulness and the will to accomplish that which they undertake.

If you have a relative or friend on the border, rest easily on his account. He will return a better man than when he marched away.

Patients, 61; nursing visits, 119; social visits, 11; business visits, 21; surgical cases, 17; obstetrical cases, none; tuberculosis cases, 10; operations, 2; metropolitan, 62; died, 2; dismissed, 30. Total, 235.

On one of Miss Frost's visits to the rural schools she found the teacher much distressed, because the children were suffering with toothache which greatly interfered with their work. Miss Frost, in her usual efficient manner returned in a few days, accompanied by a dentist who spent the day extracting, filling, cleaning, and treating their teeth, and left the children much happier.

MRS. CHEATHAM WEDS

Friends and relatives here have received news of the wedding of Mrs. Lillian Thompson Cheatham, of Louisville, formerly of this city, and Mr. C. Herbert Plante, of Boston, Mass., which occurred in Louisville last Friday. After a short stay in Louisville the couple will go north to make their home. The bride is a daughter of the late W. J. Thompson, of this city, and was born and reared here. She was married several years ago to Mr. McClelland Cheatham, well known printer of Mt. Sterling, who died in Louisville a few years ago. Local people remember her as an exceptionally sweet and lovable woman and news of her marriage will be learned with much interest.

IMPROVE THE ROADS

This is a mighty good time for everybody to get busy and improve our country roads. Winter will be coming along soon and then we will begin lamenting the fact that the roads are muddy, and rough, and "getting worse all the time." Of course they will be muddy and rough, and will keep on getting worse, unless we back up ourselves and get out and do something worth while. We have never yet seen a fellow who was not willing to get out his hammer and knock when the subject of country roads is mentioned, but very few of them are willing to use a shovel, or a spade, or a scraper. If we had more do and less talk we would have good roads everywhere and the family hammer could be put to better use.

REVENUE BILL PASSES

The Administration's emergency revenue bill, designed to raise $205,000,000 annually from taxes on inheritance and war munitions and from increases in the income tax; creating a tariff commission; establishing a protective tariff on dyestuffs; providing for protection of American firms from "dumping" at the end of the war, and giving the President authority to take drastic retaliatory steps against interference with American trade, was passed last Tuesday by the Senate.

It doesn't hurt to tell the truth once in a while. If every husband would turn his pay envelope over to his wife we wouldn't hear so much about the High Cost of Living.

Perhaps! Sidney Nutt says he has a suspicion that Horse Sense has been supplanted by Automobile Acumen.

It is natural and right that a mother should wish to see her daughter well educated and even highly accomplished; and it is a mistake that good and careful education should unfit a girl for the homely duties of cooking, dusting and general housework. On the contrary, those duties would be better performed if mothers would at the same time they seek talented instructors for their daughters, impart to them some of their own ordinary talent; there would be more good wives and marriages.

When a well-built girl is wearing an ultra-decollete waist a man can be with her all afternoon and not know the color of the stockings she is wearing.

There is always something to be thankful for. Just suppose that they were wearing long striped stockings with those short skirts!

SHOULD VOTE

Many soldiers serving on the border are losing their right to vote at the primaries and at the general election as a reward (?) for their patriotism and fidelity in time of national stress. These National Guardsmen, over a hundred thousand of them, were sent to the border to protect American citizens and American property from the raids of the bloodthirsty brigands across the Rio Grande. Each of them left positions in civil life which paid them many times the amount of their government pay. The sacrifices they have made are not small. And yet there is no governmental law which gives them the right to vote at their company stations for the civil officers who are to rule them when they return to their homes. The soldiers from a few states enjoy this privilege through state made laws, but the many do not. It is a shame, a disgrace, a travesty upon the vaunted justice of this country, and should be remedied without delay. The man who is willing to shed his blood for his country should not be deprived of his right to vote because of that willingness.

Keeping up with the procession is not enough for the General—he must lead. And lead he does—in volume, quality and price. The General's leadership is due to the enormous resources at his command—the five m's of modern manufacturing—men, money, mills, machinery and materials.

Men who have learned the roofing business through years of practical experience are in charge of every department of the business. Men who have made a life study of the blending of asphalts comprise the General's Board of Expert Chemists.

Money—the means to promote efficiency, increase out-put, reduce cost, prevent waste—is at the General's call in abundance.

Mills—the largest roofing mills in the world are the General's. They are advantageously located at points where cost of fuel, access to raw materials and quick distribution of finished products are most favorable.

Machinery—the most modern known to the roofing business, equips each of the General's enormous mills. Not a dollar is left unspent which would speed up production, increase quality or lower costs.

Materials—the food of the mills—is bought by the General in enormous quantities, and stored. This means the pick of the market and favorable buying, and no loss from idle machinery, due to shortage of materials.

Thus the success of CERTAIN-TEED Roofing is no secret, but is due to a combination of resources and experience without parallel in the roofing business.

CERTAIN-TEED is made of the best quality roofing felt, thoroughly saturated with a scientific blend of soft asphalts, the formula of the General's board of expert chemists. It is then coated with a blend of harder asphalts, which keeps the inner saturation soft and prevents the drying-out so destructive to the ordinary roof.

CERTAIN-TEED is guaranteed for 5, 10 or 15 years, according to ply (1, 2 or 3). Experience proves that it lasts longer.

CERTAIN-TEED is made in rolls; also in slate-surfaced shingles. There is a type of CERTAIN-TEED for every kind of building, with flat or pitched roof, from skyscraper to small residence or out-building.

CERTAIN-TEED is sold by responsible dealers all over the world, at reasonable prices. Investigate it before you decide on any type of roof.

WHO'LL BE NEXT?

When you have read through this issue of the paper just take time enough to let one fact sink in to your active brain. The paper on which this issue was printed has cost us more than double what it cost us a year ago. The ink we used is away up in price. The oil that keeps the presses revolving is up in price. The power that moves the machinery is sky high. In fact, every item of expense is up in the clouds and many are away above them, and every dollar of expense means just that amount of money right out of our pocket. A great many subscribers are in arrears on subscription, and we need that money in order to meet the rapidly increasing cost of producing this paper. It is simply thoughtlessness on your part, we know, but our own creditors do not recognize that word. It don't go with them for an instant. Do we get "ours," brother?

TO VOTE ON BOND ISSUE

At the regular meeting of the Montgomery County Fiscal Court held on last week, a resolution was passed authorizing the submission of a bond issue to the voters of this county at the next general election. The bond issue will be for $15,000, the money to be used in purchasing a "Poor Farm" for the county's use. Little other business was transacted except the allowing of a few claims for turnpike work, etc.

The first word a child utters is apt to be "Mother" and the old man in his dying dream calls "Mother!" It matters not whether she was brought up in the surroundings of a city and in an affluent home, and was dressed appropriately with reference to the demands of modern life, or whether she wore the old-time cap and great round spectacles and apron of her own make, and knit your socks with her own needles, seated by the broad fireplace, with great black legs ablaze on a winter night. It matters not how many wrinkles crossed and recrossed her face, or how much her shoulders stooped with the burdens of a long life, if you painted a madonna hers would be the face. What a gentle hand she had when we were sick, and what a voice to soothe pain, and was there any one who could so fill up a room with peace and purity and light? And what a sad day that was when we came home and she could greet us not, for her lips were forever still.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Catron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good: I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its tiring me, and am doing my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of wonderful success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

THE WINCHESTER MEETING

The opening of the Democratic campaign in the State at Winchester Saturday was one of the largest, most enthusiastic and best arranged political gatherings it has ever been our pleasure to attend and judging from the reports brought from every county in the State, Kentucky cannot longer be classed as a doubtful State, but must be regarded as one that will surely give to our matchless President the endorsement his splendid administration so richly entitles him to.

As to hospitality, we don't believe it ever was excelled anywhere and upon behalf of the Democrats of the State and Montgomery county Democrats, in particular, we want to extend sincere thanks to Chairman Jno. E. Garner and the open-hearted people of Winchester. They certainly did their part and then some.

Upon its entrance into the greatest war in the world's history, announcement was made that during the war and thereafter until further notice, all barrooms must be closed and no alcoholic liquors sold in Roumania. This is the course pursued by Russia with reference to vodka.

Since temperance is admittedly good during war time, we fail to see why it would not be equally as beneficial in time of peace.

COLORED SCHOOL OPENS

The Mt. Sterling Colored School opened Monday, September 4th, with a large number of boys and girls who seemed to be filled with the spirit of school life. There were present at our opening Drs. B. F. Hickman and L. R. Johnson; Revs. J. C. Cross, J. M. Hodges and W. H. Brown, all of whom made excellent speeches that were laden with wholesome advice and enthusiasm that brings results. Aside from these gentlemen there were present with us more than 36 patrons, many of whom spoke very encouragingly to the student body, and assured the teachers that they would do all they could to help in making this the banner year in educational attainments. We only regret that there were not more parents and citizens present. We extend to every good citizen a standing invitation to stop in and see the work of teachers and pupils, and lend us a hand in ridding the streets of idle boys and girls. You are not doing your duty as a parent if you fail to encourage your sons and daughters to develop themselves into useful men and women. Without an education this can not be done.

STILL WINNING RACES

Col. W. E. Bean won two races last week at Salem, Ind., with his good trotter, Bernice Moore. The Horse Review, of last week, said that Bernice Moore looked like a 2:10 trotter. The Lexington Leader, of Sunday had the following regarding Peter Royal, the yearling colt by Peter Montgomery, owned by Bean Bros., of this county: "Peter Royal, yearling colt by Peter Montgomery, out of Baronetta, by Baron Wilkes in the string of Ed Willis, Saturday morning stepped a mile in the sensational time of 2:28, last half in 1:13 1/2. The colt was driven by J. L. Dodge, who remarked when he alighted from the sulky, that it was the first time he ever had ridden behind a yearling in better than 2:30, and that he considered Peter Royal a most valuable piece of horse flesh." This colt has been a quarter in 34 1/4 seconds. A bay filly by this same sire trotted a mile in 2:34, the last half in 1:14. Agnes Winn, by Peter Montgomery, 2:15, last half in 1:06, last quarter in 31 seconds. This mare is owned by Mr. Richmond Turley, of this county. Peter Patchen, owned by Mr. A. B. Setters, of this city, worked a mile in 2:12, last half in 1:01 3/4, last quarter in 31 1/4 seconds.

DEMOCRACY'S BANNER DAY

Campaign Opening at Winchester—ter Most Auspicious Event

Many Thousand People Listen To Oratory And Enjoy Burgoo And Barbecued Meats

The formal opening of the Democratic campaign at Winchester, Saturday, was as delightful as the occasion was auspicious. The sun never shone more brightly on the "Old Kentucky Home," the atmosphere was never more delicious and invigorating a warmer welcome was never extended than by the Democracy of the splendid county of Clark and everything seemed to work together to make the event one of the never to be forgotten by the many thousands of enthusiastic men and women who attended. Every detail for the comfort and enjoyment of their guests had been carefully arranged and nothing left undone by the general chairman Judge John E. Garner, Judge John M. Stevenson, Senator Abe Rennie, Stevo Vaught, and the able and willing corps of assistants, while the people of town and county vied with each other in doing everything in their power to add to the delights of the day. The city had been decorated in gala attire and flags and bunting floated everywhere.

The fair grounds were selected for the place of speaking, and a shed erected in front of the mammoth amphitheater for the speakers and hundreds of men of prominence. At 10:30 Judge Garner made a stirring and witty address of welcome, followed by Chairman J. Campbell, Cantrill, of the State campaign committee, who thanked in warmest terms the good people for their splendid efforts to make the opening memorable, said a few words of cheer to the people who crowded the amphitheater and filled every conceivable space in all the region aroundabout and introduced Congressman Hardy, of Texas, as the first speaker, who eloquently told of the accomplishments of the administration and urged the retention in office of the men who made them possible and fulfilled every promise of the convention that nominated him. His speech was logical, forceful and vote winning.

Following his address, which was listened to with rapt attention, the onslaught on the feast of burgoo, fried chicken, barbecued beef and lamb with many other good things, began, and though the charge was heavy and continuous the impression was hardly noticeable and the heavy laden tables would have withstood the charge of several thousands more and still groaned with their weight of well prepared edibles. It was a real feast from which no one went away empty.

On their own initiative and at their own expense, the ladies had prepared another feast in a large tent in honor of the vice president's charming wife where the speakers and others enjoyed a real banquet, served by beautiful girls and comely matrons and every body made to feel that it was good to be there. The tent was gaily decorated and the ensemble was beautiful.

The finer man having been satisfied, Gov. Stanley introduced the leading speaker of the day, Vice President Thomas R. Marshall, of Indiana, who was received with tumultuous applause, and his was a most captivating address, full of hope and confidence. Mr. Marshall is a born orator and possessing the ability to tell an anecdote well, he soon caught his audience which listened to his effort with wild cheers and applause. There are few more popular speakers than Woodrow Wilson's running mate, "the tall to his knee," as he called himself, and his eloquent recital of constructive work accomplished during the three and a half years that the Democrats had been in power, made a lasting impression on the multitude, which drunk in every word with avidity, and seemed fully to agree with him that God had raised up Woodrow Wilson for his great work.

Congressman W. J. Fields then introduced the Hon. Thomas J. Mefflin of Alabama, whose fame as an orator is nation-wide, and for an hour he kept the vast throng applauding or convulsed with laughter at the stories he told so finically. It was a great speech and kept the crowd to its end though more than half of it had to stand to hear it.

Chairman A. B. Rouse, of the speakers' bureau, could hardly have made better selection for the occasion he every man of them is master in his line of speech.

The great crowd, which came from many parts of the state and was variously estimated at from 10,000 to 20,000, reluctantly took its leave, filled with enthusiasm and intent on doing all in its power to re-elect Wilson and Marshall for four more years of patriotic service.

There have been many grand open ings of Democratic campaigns in Kentucky, but the one at Winchester eclipsed them all and the Democracy of the state owes the people of Clark county a debt they can hardly repay. Everybody at all acquainted with the public spiritedness of those wide-awake citizens, knew that they would strive to outdo all other occasions, and gloriously did they fulfill the confidence. And to them be honor and glory now and always. They certainly emphasized the ambitious little city's place on the map and wrote her name high on the scroll of fame.

Chairman Cantrill expressed his real delight over the auspicious opening of the campaign, that must result in a famous victory for Democracy and is prouder of the county of his congressional district than ever. It was indeed a glorious day for the cause of the people and a forerunner of a victory that will surprise the nation, which has been led to think that Kentucky is a doubtful state.

The enthusiasm engendered by the glorious meeting at Winchester will spread all over Kentucky and with such candidates as Wilson and Marshall and such achievements as the Democratic party has to its credit the old commonwealth ought to be good for the Tilden majority, which was 60,000. Kentuckians recognize true worth and faithful service and all who love these qualities will vote to retain the man in office who has done so much for the cause of humanity. Up men, and at 'em.

BECKHAM ON THE JOB

A Washington dispatch says that Senator J. C. W. Beckham left Washington Saturday night for Kentucky and will place himself at the disposal of the Democratic Campaign Committee. Senator Beckham has been invited to speak in a number of states but plans to give most of his time to his home state. Being one of Kentucky's most gifted and popular sons, he is sure to draw a large crowd wherever he speaks.

More than 300 kinds of fish have voices audible to human ears.

There is a lot of High-Brow Flubdubs going the rounds. But the average American has enough horse sense to prefer a Good Cook to a Soul Mate when he is looking for a side partner.

SYSTEMATIZE

Your household expenses by opening a bank account for your wife. Give her a check book and teach her the use of it. Pay the butcher, the grocer, the baker, with a check. Then at the end of the month you'll find out just how much it costs you to run the home. When payment by check is made there never is any doubt as to whether or not a bill is paid. The check is a receipt.

Besides, a checking account will give your wife a business education. The number of ordinarily bright women who know absolutely nothing of banking is surprising. If you are a husband, father, brother, you cannot tell when death may overtake you, and it is well that your wife, daughter and sister know something of banking.

STREET CONTRACT AWARDED

The City Council last Tuesday awarded the contract for improving Richmond avenue from Main street to the city limits to James Richards. The street will be reconstructed with macadam on the Government model road plan, and work will be started immediately. Little other business of importance was transacted by the Council. The Council will meet tonight to hear the report of the committee investigating the practicality of a municipal lighting plant. This conflict between the railroads and their employees has served at least one good purpose. It has convinced the ultimate goants (the public at large) that laws must be enacted to prevent a recurrence of conflicts in the future which have the possibility of a paralysis of the commercial interests of the country. Those laws should be so drastic in their nature as to force a course of moderation on both sides to the controversy. The people have rights, as well as the city of a municipal lighting plant. railroads and their employees.

ESSAY ON HABIT

M. Lincoln Schuster, a junior in the Pulitzer School of Journalism, won the fifty-dollar prize offered by Arthur Brisbane, editor of the New York Evening Journal, for the best editorial written by a member of the school on "Habit." Schuster, who is nineteen years of age, has done literary work for the Independent, and is a college correspondent for several New York newspapers. Until recently he was connected with the literary department of the Columbia Spectator.

Eighty-seven editorials were submitted during the competition.

The editorial which was adjudged best by Geddes Smith, of the Independent; William Lahey and Blanche Bates, of the New York Tribune, all graduates of the School of Journalism, follows:

Habit—Your Slave Or Master?

Habit is the greatest friend and the greatest enemy of mankind.

Habit is life—the very life of life. Habit is the backbone of your character.

Habit is the basis of ninety-nine per cent. of what you do.

Habit is not second nature; rather as the Duke of Wellington said, "it is ten times nature."

Habits are of two kinds: good and bad.

Bad habits are vices; good habits are virtues.

Bad habits destroy; good habits build.

Bad habits enslave you; good habits make you the master of yourself.

Bad habits tie you to the great monkey god you see on this page. You whirl round and round, tied to bad habits. You go fast, but not far. You are powerless.

The smoking-habit, the drinking-habit, the swearing-habit—all these are chains of slavery.

A mental slave to bad habits is far worse to a physical slave, for the little string that binds him cannot be cut with the sharpest knife that man can devise. It can only be broken by the power of will.

Bad habits keep you from getting anywhere in life—except in the narrow circle around the stone monkey.

The little thin string that ties you to bad habits grows stronger and stronger every day. If you want to be free, you must determine to break that string now.

Don't postpone—postponing is another bad habit.

Cut that string now!

But don't be afraid of all habits. Good habits are to be prized.

Good habits are the greatest time-savers in your life.

You get up in the morning, you wash, you dress, you eat, you go to sleep—all by habit.

You do these necessary things automatically—good habits give you the power.

If you didn't develop these simple habits, if you had to think every time before you got up, before you dressed, before you ate, you would have no time for anything else.

Thinking about things you can do by habits is a waste of time. Habit is the great short-cut to action.

Don't be the slave of habit. Let habit be your slave.

Let habit do the routine things of life for you.

Let habit give you daily efficiency, punctuality, exactness and neatness.

Let habit give you healthy exercise every day, deep breathing, wholesome food and regular hours.

Let habit give you a pleasant smile, a warm greeting, and joy in your work.

This will save you time, worry and energy.

Then you will have room for the greater things of life—thinking, reading and character-building.

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY

No heart is insensible to words of praise or the kindly smile of approbation, and none are utterly above being affected by censure or blame. Children are particularly sensitive in this respect. Nothing can discourage a child more than a spirit of incessant fault-finding, and perhaps nothing can exert a more painful influence upon both parent and child. If your little one, through the day, has been pleasant and obedient, and you say to him, "My son, you have been good today, and it makes me very happy," and if, with more than a usually affectionate embrace, you say, "Good night, my dear child," a throb of suppressed feelings fills his breast, and he resolves on always earning such approval.

When a girl doesn't like the young man who persists in calling on her she doesn't have to lie and send word that she is not at home when he calls. All she has to do is to eat a nice big raw onion and go down and meet him. He won't come back.

MENEFFEE CONVICTION

At a special term of the Menefee Circuit Court last week, the jury in the case of Reese Bryant, charged with killing Courtney Dennis some time ago, rendered a verdict of guilty and fixed the punishment at five years and one day in the penitentiary. The case was tried before Circuit Judge Ciseo, and Bryant was defended by Judge W. A. Young. The case will not be appealed and Bryant will begin his sentence at once.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running ear or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

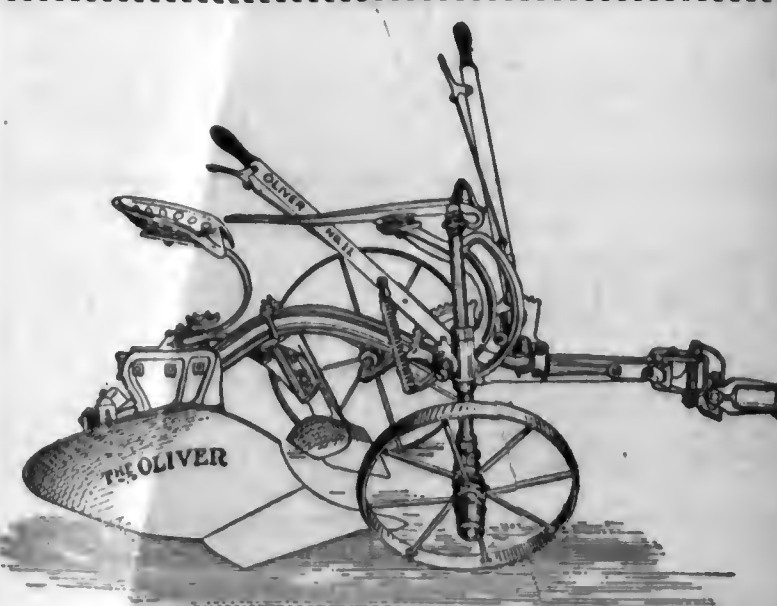

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

KENTUCKY CROP REPORT

Tobacco is curing most satisfactorily, is the feature of the monthly crop report made recently by Commissioner of Agriculture Cohen. Seed wheat is so high that the acreage is going to be cut down, but the corn crop is the best in years and will make up for this loss.

The crop season for 1916 is fast drawing to a close and the conditions for the present are most gratifying. Very variable reports of conditions in different communities come to this office as shown by the individual notes from counties.

Since the good rains, corn, tobacco and pastures have made a wonderful growth.

Generally speaking the corn crop bids fair to be a good one, in fact the best in years in some localities, although much damage is reported by recent storms. The condition of corn as a State average is given at 92 per cent. The condition of Burley tobacco is given at 90 per cent and dark tobacco at 91 per cent. Tobacco cutting and housing has begun and is in full swing in many sections and reported as curing well. The hemp crop is in good condition and shows at 93 per cent.

The condition of cow peas is given at 86 per cent while soy beans show at 88 per cent. It is worth while to note what an increased average in these two crops is shown in some counties while in other counties no report is made at all as these crops are not raised there. Pasture conditions are good, showing much improvement since the late rains. At present bluegrass shows an average of 87 per cent, clover at 87 per cent, orchard grass 91 per cent and alfalfa 87 per cent. The third cutting of alfalfa is estimated to yield two tons per acre and the prospects for the fourth are good.

Much complaint is made of garden conditions generally throughout the State. The average condition is given at 80 per cent. The condition of Irish potatoes is given at 79 per cent. The outlook for fruit is very unsatisfactory. Apples are falling off badly and their average condition is given at 59 per cent. Peaches are very scarce and faulty and show a condition of 79 per cent. Pears are given at 58 per cent and grapes at 84 per cent.

There seems to be a scarcity of live stock reported in many places but the condition of all live stock is splendid.

Horses show a condition of 94 per cent, cattle show a condition of 82 per cent, hogs show a condition of 94 per cent, sheep show a condition of 93 per cent.

Poultry conditions are good, but comparatively few turkeys and ducks are raised this year. Condition shows as follows:

Chickens, 93 per cent.
Turkeys, 83 per cent.
Ducks, 87 per cent.

With pastures so promising, live stock should go into the winter in a splendid condition. Some fall plowing has begun for wheat. Some complaint is made that seed wheat is so high that this will cut down the acreage to be sown. This is regrettable and it is hoped as large an acreage of fall wheat as possible will be put in.

Summing up conditions at this time, the general outlook for the farmer this year is a prosperous one.

The home should be a place where man is always on his good behavior; our kindest words, our pleasantest smiles, and our most particular favors, should be kept to exchange with our own household. Oyez! Oyez! When Love is Blind a Lane Exeunt does very well.

CLIPPINGS FROM THE SNAGTOWN TORCHLIGHT

It may not be of much interest to anyone, but the Horse Editor of the Torchlight (who is us) is never troubled with Nightmare.

Miss Mamzie Campbell left yesterday afternoon for Hot Water Springs, Ark., where she has been engaged at Whittington Park to sing "When Peroxide Turns the Marcelle Wave to Gold."

George Bean, the well-known barbequeer and merchant, has devised a plan of traveling that may become popular. He has changed the wheels on his buggy, putting the rear tail ones in front and the low front ones behind. This enables him to rear back in his seat and look prominent, and also it leaves the impression that he is traveling down hill all the time.

Jack Perdne, who left last week for Pevine Ridge, to make that his home forever, returned to Snagtown yesterday and will again reside here permanently. He sees no change in the place since he left, and, with the exception of a new hat, there has been no change with him. He says Snagtown is good enough for him.

Captain Jack Plankett, the postmaster of Snagtown (who is us) has revised several of the government rules regulating the operation of postoffices, and has cut out many of the objectionable features of the business.

Archie Ledgerwood started for a trip to Plunkville yesterday, but encountered some spider webs across the road and turned around and came back. Archie is one of our most unprogressive citizens.

Steve Sovish is in the Rusty Gulch jail with a complication of charges. He expects to be out next week, unless a lot of witnesses go back on their promises at the trial.

While over at Plunkville, last Thursday, Sam Wexler wrote himself a long letter, and is anxiously waiting its arrival at the Postoffice here.

Ben Murray has taken the agency for a patent meal sifter and fly catcher combined. It was thought out by a man living near Rattlesnake Ford, and is a success for both purposes. Mr. Murray's territory embraces the whole United States, and he is greasing his buggy and hitching up his mule this week, getting ready to make the rounds.

Deputy Constable Doc Walz has an attachment for Jack May's watch, and will serve it as soon as he can discover where Jack has hid it. The Deputy ransacked the premises yesterday, looking everywhere, except in Jack's whiskers.

WOODROW WILSON—THE MAN

Americanism and peace, preparedness and prosperity, these are the issues upon which the Democratic party stands, and the heart of Democracy swells with pride that it hails the man who has asserted his Americanism, assured this peace, advocated this preparedness, and produced this prosperity.

The man who is President of the United States today has measured up to the best traditions of a great office.

He has been wise with a wisdom that is steeped in the traditions of his country, with a wisdom that has been disciplined by training and broadened by instruction.

He has been prudent with the prudence of one who has within his hands the destiny of a hundred million people.

He has been firm with the firmness that proceeds from deep conviction, with the firmness that is grounded in a duty well defined.

He has been courageous with the courage that places country above self, with the courage that follows duty wherever it may lead.

He has been dignified with the dignity that is self-forgetting and self-respecting, with the dignity that conserves the majesty of the greatest office in the world.

He has been patient with the patience which believes and trusts that truth crushed to earth will rise again, with the patience that can endure and wait, watch and pray for the certain vindication of justice, humanity and right.

He has been patriotic with a patriotism that is as pure and strong as the faith that moved the fathers when they made our country free.

No President since the Civil War has had as crucial problems to solve, and no President has displayed a grasp more sure, a statesmanship more profound.

Assailed by the wolves of privilege, he has pulled their claws and drawn their teeth.

Assaulted by partisan envy he has shamed his traducers into silence and made friend and foe go forward together in the paths of national progress.

He has fired our patriotism with a new ardor; he has breathed into our ancient traditions a new vigor and a new life.

He has added strength to America's courage and mingled mercy with America's strength.

He has fastened the brakes of justice upon the wheels of power; he has lifted the mists from the temple where our liberties are enshrined.

And when the history of these days comes to be written and the children of tomorrow read their Nation's story, when time shall have dispelled all misconception and the years shall have rendered their impartial verdict, one name will shine in golden splendor upon the page that is blackened with the tale of Europe's war, one name will represent the triumph of American principles over the hosts of darkness and of death.

That name will be the name of the great President who has made Democracy proud that he is a Democrat and made Americans proud that he is an American.

It will be the name of the student and the scholar who has kept his country true to its faith in a time that tried men's souls; the name of the statesman who has championed the cause of American freedom wherever he found it oppressed; the name of the patriot who has implanted his country's flag on the highest peak to which humanity has yet aspired; the name that carried the torch of progress to victory once and will carry it to victory again; the name of Woodrow Wilson, President and President to be.

Just keep right on breezing through life without a thought of the welfare of others and in the end you will die without knowing that you have even lived.

A man with a single idea is a crank, while one with no idea at all is often a successful politician.

Levee.

Tobacco is being housed here very rapidly this week.

Mrs. Lela Gillsie and daughter, Lela, have rented their farm to Mr. M. O. Cockrell and moved to Mt. Sterling. We sure are sorry to lose such good people from our midst.

Wardie Davis, son of Bro. Davis, is very sick with sore throat.

Bro. Black baptized three additions to the church here Sunday evening.

Deaths—On Sunday night, the little son of Tol Parker. He had been sick only a few days and his death causes much sorrow. He was a bright, manly little fellow, and every heart in the community is saddened by the news of his death. May God console his parents as no others can.

As some colored children were returning from Sunday School Sunday afternoon some boys were playing with a pistol, it went off, shot Jay Chenault just above the knee, inflicting a bad wound. She was treated by Dr. See and sent to her home here in the Levee.

Mrs. Lida Mark and daughter, Miss Lueile, of Springfield, are visiting Mrs. Mark's sister, Mrs. Wm. Cuywood, in Illinois.

Indications are that there will not be much effort made to increase the acreage of wheat. The high price of seed and the uncertainty of the crop makes the farmer slow to take hold.
